Policy for Distance Education Dollars Generated in the Department of Psychological Science

In order to increase the number of distance education students enrolled, but maintain the quality of the education delivered, in the Department of Psychological Science and to promote the general welfare of the department the following represents the policy with regard to the use of monies generated from distance education courses:

The total dollars returned to the department will be split between the faculty member and department, with a maximum amount of $5,000 per semester allotted to the faculty member. That is, the faculty will receive one-half of the monies until the faculty member has reached the cap of $5,000 per semester and the department will receive the remaining funds.

1. The faculty member’s monies will be placed in his or her Faculty Support account to be used at the discretion of the faculty member, as appropriate, on his or her scholarship and teaching expenses.
2. The department’s money will be placed in the Grant Release account to be used at the discretion of the Chair for achieving overall department goals.
